A culinary experience for youth ages 8-14.

This summer, youth will once again learn different aspects of cooking and baking at the Flour Pot Classroom.

Wednesday afternoons will feature make-and-take baking experiences. On Fridays, youth will work together to cook a lunchtime meal and share the food they've made with their parents.

Each week we have a different recipe to share and new techniques for participants to learn. Parents need not be present during the class but are welcome to volunteer to chaperone.

Pre-registration is required. Sign your kiddo up to participate in one or more of the classes listed below. Register for classes individually on the Flour Pot Website. To register for multiple classes, please complete page 2. Upon registration, you will be sent a liability release form and other information. COST: $40 per class/per student cash or check. $43 if using a credit card.

We look forward to working with your children this summer! Save this page for future reference.
